1. The Director	5 APR 1972	[Signature]	Here is the Record of the 23 November Senate dialogue on Symington's proposed $4 billion ceiling on the community. In support of the bill he cited the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. Lack of adequate review of intelligence activities in the Senate as compared with the House.</li> <li>b. His inability to obtain info on intelligence appropriations from the Appropriations Committee staff (Ellender also refused him).</li> <li>c. Alleged disclosures by Foreign Relations staff investigators of duplication and waste in the field.</li> <li>d. Concern about the impact of the "reorganization," especially the increased involvement of Kissinger in intelligence matters and reports of plans for a military DDCI</li> </ul>
